

Premium Wood Framed Metal Wire Queen Bee Excluder

Item Number: QE-05

Introduction

Durable wood-framed metal queen excluder for beekeepers. Ensures brood-free honey supers, smooth bee passage, and long-lasting hive efficiency. Order now!

Learn More

| Attribute          | Specification                                                                      |
|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Product Name       | Wood-Framed Metal Wire Queen Excluder                                              |
| Materials          | Galvanized Metal Wire, Wood Frame                                                  |
| Standard Size      | 51cm x 41cm (for 10-Frame Langstroth hives)                                        |
| Frame Width        | 2.5cm                                                                              |
| Frame Thickness    | 1.4cm                                                                              |
| Custom Sizes       | Dadant (50x43cm), British National (46x46cm), and other sizes available on request |
| Construction Types | Welded or Wire-Through                                                             |
| Key Features       | Precise spacing, durable construction, bee-safe smooth wires, warp-resistant       |